Program Highlights

#CAP is the abbreviation for College Admissions Process, is the signature program of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc,. It is designed to assist students in their efforts to enter college by providing a hands-on approach that includes all the steps from researching various colleges to actually completing the application process.

GOALS

- Chapters will partner with local high schools and youth groups to bridge the gap between high schools and college by demystifying the college application and enrollment process
- To extend this educational initiative to all colleges and universities, both HBCU's and non HBCU's.

EXPECTED OUTCOMES

1. Facilitate the college admissions process
2. Research various institutions and help submit applications through completion of the enrollment process
3. Assist students with preparation for the SAT and ACT, writing compelling personal statements, identifying scholarships and other financial aid and compiling a portfolio to track college admissions results
4. Improve the trajectory of the lives of talented young people to achieve positive outcomes
